The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love toward the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, ... Amen.

The Scriptures

From the Prophecy of Isaiah

50.4-9a

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens— wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.
This is the word of the Lord    Thanks be to God

Though one with God, yet not by might Did Christ his equal status claim
Instead he gave up all he had
And as a humble servant came
In worldly form, of woman born
He lived at one with humankind
And strode and stumbled to the cross
That we the path to life might find

Tune: Jerusalem

Therefore God raised him after death
Raised him to reign in earth and heaven
The one whom we considered least

The greatest name by God was given
And so, to honour Jesus' name
All who have life or are to be
Shall kneel proclaiming 'Christ is Lord!'
And worship God eternally
